SANDERS & FRYE ANNOUNCE SAN DIEGO IS NAMED BEST CYCLING CITY IN U.S.

Frye, Sanders working together to provide continuing service for cyclists

San Diego, CA- Today, Mayor Jerry Sanders and Councilmember Donna Frye announced that San Diego has been named the best cycling city with a population of more than one million people by Bicycling Magazine.

Mayor Jerry Sanders said, "We are very excited that Bicycling Magazine, the largest magazine in that industry, has chosen San Diego as number one for bicyclists with a population over 1 million people. We will continue to provide cycling routes for our citizens and plan on remaining one of the best cycling cities in the US."

Councilmember Frye stated that "San Diego has over 850 miles of bike lanes and routes. In the past three years alone we have been able to add 300 miles of bike routes throughout our City and along the San Diego River and Mission Bay."

Frye and Sanders were riding a tandem bicycle along the Mission Bay bike path on their way to the announcement. San Diego provides bike routes throughout the entire city including sizeable routes along the San Diego River, Mission Bay and San Diego Bay.

Mayor Sanders was sworn in as mayor of the San Diego in December 2005. Frye is the Councilmember for the Sixth Council District of the City of San Diego, which includes Clairemont, Kearny Mesa, Linda Vista, Mission Bay, Mission Valley and Serra Mesa. She has served on the City Council since 2001.
